Institutional Ethnography
Institutional ethnography
(IE) is an alternative approach of studying and understanding the social; it is an alternative sociology.
IE explores the social relations that structure people's everyday lives, specifically by looking at the ways that people interact with one another in the context of social institutions (school, marriage, work, for example) and understanding how those interactions are institutionalized.

Institutional ethnography
(IE) is a sociological method of inquiry which Smith developed, created to explore the social relations that structure people's everyday lives. For the institutional ethnographer, ordinary daily activity becomes the site for an investigation of social organization.
