Chris Barton is not known for it's literary genius, but it is a humorous and colorful book that my 4 year old son absolutely loves. I will be honest and say that the side-conversations in the story (those written in idea bubbles) are a bit distracting in my opinion.

"Shark vs. Train" by Chris Barton is a

humorous picture

book of a battle

between a great white

shark and a steam

train. The book

reveals that there is no obvious winner as a shark is successful

in water and sports

that involve water, but the train is successful in times when rides are given or when a loud sound or weight is tested.

Shark wins at high diving, not surprisingly, while Train comes out on top when it comes to burping. Other face-offs are less immediately obvious: Train stretches vertically to triumph at basketball, while Shark's sharp-toothed clown costume works best for trick-or-treating.
